Learning Zone

Discover what you can learn on BBC 2's unique record and play service.

The BBC Course Search allows you to search for courses by keywords, choose between self study and taught classes and decide how far you want to travel from your postcode.

From your results list, click on the course title for further details. The further details page lists information about the course, the price and often provides a website link to the provider of the course.

Course Search

If you're thinking about starting a course but don't know what's available in your area, our course search will help you.

Enter your requirements in the form below. If your initial search does not return any results or the right course for you, try the following:

- Modify the keyword you're using to search. For example, change 'woodwork' to 'woodworking' or simply 'wood'
- Increase the distance from your postcode
- Change the 'learning type' and 'learning level' boxes. Remember the more different levels of courses you search, the more likely you are to find some results.
